ENFORCEMENT PLAN

Students that do not comply with these classroom rules will receive the following consequences:

1. Student will be asked to speak with the teacher after class
2. Student will fill out a “Change of Behavior Plan” stating what they did wrong, why they did it, and what they will do differently so that they will not repeat it.
3. Student’s parents will receive an email/phone call discussing the broken rule
4. Student will be asked to go to the classroom next door for the remainder of the class
5. Student will receive detention
6. Student will receive in-school suspension and will report to the Stang Center

CONSEQUENCES FOR SPECIFIC RULES:

Bellringers: Bellringer assignments that are not completed during class during the allotted time may not be turned in late (Exception: absences & pre-arranged tardiness).

Phones/Personal Devices: Any phone or personal device that is seen out during the class period will be taken and will not be returned until the end of the class period (Exception: If there is an emergency that requires the use of technology that is discussed with the teacher or if the student is using their phone to take a picture of the board).

Interrupting Classmates/Raising Hands: Students that speak out of turn without being called on will be asked to hold their thought. Interrupting classmates will not be tolerated and may lead to the consequences listed in the Enforcement Plan above.

Academic Integrity: Students may help each other on homework but should not copy their answers. Tests and quizzes are closed book (i.e. to be completed without the textbook, notes, or a friend). Students that are found copying homework or cheating on tests and quizzes will receive a 0 and will be reported to the administration.

School Rules/Dress Code: Students are expected to follow the school rules and dress code; if they do not, the school’s guidelines for punishment will be enforced.
